The Second Circuit Court of Appeals revived an East Harlem poet’s free speech case on Friday. The court overturned a lower court’s decision that had dismissed the case, allowing it to proceed.

Federal authorities on Friday indicted the operators of a children’s daycare center for allegedly using tear gas to control the children. The gas was reportedly used to quell an argument among the children, causing several to seek medical treatment.

No. 3 Justice Dept Official

The Justice Department’s No. 3 official is making the next fight over immigration policy. The official is reportedly working with Republican leaders on the formation of a new task force to address immigration issues.

Immigration Fight Looks

President Donald Trump is all claiming big wins in the $400 billion budget agreement signed into law Friday. But the real winners are the Republicans, who managed to get their way on most provisions.

Laws of the Land

It’s a sight familiar to many parents of newborns. Their baby son or daughter has been screened for cystic fibrosis, and heart and hearing congenital defects like sickle cell anemia. A new database of baby blood samples aims to help doctors screen newborns for genetic diseases.

Database of Baby Blood Samples

Parents Sue Michigan Over Hemp Laws

The Republican leaders of the state’s congressional districts are submitting a new statewide map of the state’s congressional districts to the state’s congressional districts commission. The map will mean the military can foot the bill for thousands more troops, more training, and new equipment.

Pa. GOP Submits New

A business known as "Train from O'Hare International Airport to Chicago O'Hare Express Train" has been accused of running a scam that ripped off customers. According to the reports, the company advertised a train service that never existed.

One police officer was killed and two others were injured in a shooting at a gas station in Chicago on Friday. The shooting occurred during a robbery attempt and left the officers injured.

Chico, Napa

Might Be Good Thing for Miami

A medical device that can prevent mosquito bites and reduce the spread of diseases like Zika is being considered as an innovation that may kill off more mosquitoes. The device uses ultraviolet light to disrupt the mosquitoes’ perception of humans.

Might Be Good Thing for Miami

White House website still has no Spanish-language support.

Spanish Website? Nada de Nada

States speaks Spanish.

The White House website has been criticized for lacking Spanish-language support. The website was launched in 2009 and has since been praised for its bilingual capabilities. However, many Hispanic Americans trust the FBI despite a concerted campaign by Republican political operatives to undermine its credibility.

Americans trust the FBI despite a concerted campaign by Republican political operatives to undermine its credibility.

As Oklahoma sought to diversify its oil-and-gas powered economy in the early 2000s, the state’s education system was hit hard financial cuts, forcing schools to cut programs and lay off teachers.

As Oklahoma sought to diversify its oil-and-gas powered economy in the early 2000s, the state’s education system was hit hard financial cuts, forcing schools to cut programs and lay off teachers.

The Republican Right and Me

As Oklahoma sought to diversify its oil-and-gas powered economy in the early 2000s, the state’s education system was hit hard financial cuts, forcing schools to cut programs and lay off teachers.

The Republican Right and Me

A painting previously thought to be an 18th-century copy of a work by artist Jan Steen is actually an original by the Dutch master, a museum announced Friday. The painting was purchased by a private art collector for $2.5 million.

A painting previously thought to be an 18th-century copy of a work by artist Jan Steen is actually an original by the Dutch master, a museum announced Friday.

A painting previously thought to be an 18th-century copy of a work by artist Jan Steen is actually an original by the Dutch master, a museum announced Friday.

Bail Revoked for Star

In response to a request from Prince’s family, a judge in Minnesota granted a new request for information on the singer’s death. The new request is intended to help investigators understand how Prince was able to access the prescription painkillers that he used.

In response to a request from Prince’s family, a judge in Minnesota granted a new request for information on the singer’s death. The new request is intended to help investigators understand how Prince was able to access the prescription painkillers that he used.

In response to a request from Prince’s family, a judge in Minnesota granted a new request for information on the singer’s death. The new request is intended to help investigators understand how Prince was able to access the prescription painkillers that he used.

The FTC is investigating whether utilities are overcharging customers for electricity and natural gas. The investigation is focusing on companies like Avangrid and Eversource Energy, which have been accused of inflating prices.

The FTC is investigating whether utilities are overcharging customers for electricity and natural gas. The investigation is focusing on companies like Avangrid and Eversource Energy, which have been accused of inflating prices.

The FTC is investigating whether utilities are overcharging customers for electricity and natural gas. The investigation is focusing on companies like Avangrid and Eversource Energy, which have been accused of inflating prices.

Five New Mexico Parents Sue Michigan Over Hemp Laws

A Tokyo public school has adopted Giorgio Armani uniforms for students, taking a VIP seat in the fashion world. The move has sparked controversy and protests among parents who believe the uniforms are too expensive and out of place in a public school.

A Tokyo public school has adopted Giorgio Armani uniforms for students, taking a VIP seat in the fashion world. The move has sparked controversy and protests among parents who believe the uniforms are too expensive and out of place in a public school.

A Tokyo public school has adopted Giorgio Armani uniforms for students, taking a VIP seat in the fashion world. The move has sparked controversy and protests among parents who believe the uniforms are too expensive and out of place in a public school.

Japan's Kikai Caldera

A serial killer probe is looking into the remains of at least six people from Japan’s main island. The probe is focusing on a man who has confessed to murdering and dismembering multiple victims.

A serial killer probe is looking into the remains of at least six people from Japan’s main island. The probe is focusing on a man who has confessed to murdering and dismembering multiple victims.

A serial killer probe is looking into the remains of at least six people from Japan’s main island. The probe is focusing on a man who has confessed to murdering and dismembering multiple victims.

But the underlying factors that fuel the formation of these factions vary by issue, the report said. In some cases, the factors include economic issues, while in others, it is social and cultural issues.

But the underlying factors that fuel the formation of these factions vary by issue, the report said. In some cases, the factors include economic issues, while in others, it is social and cultural issues.

But the underlying factors that fuel the formation of these factions vary by issue, the report said. In some cases, the factors include economic issues, while in others, it is social and cultural issues.

2017 Was Worst Year for Hate Crimes

In 2017, the White House’s Office of National Drug Control Policy issued an executive order aimed at reducing the nation’s drug epidemic. The order was intended to address the issue of drug addiction and its impact on public health.

In 2017, the White House’s Office of National Drug Control Policy issued an executive order aimed at reducing the nation’s drug epidemic. The order was intended to address the issue of drug addiction and its impact on public health.

In 2017, the White House’s Office of National Drug Control Policy issued an executive order aimed at reducing the nation’s drug epidemic. The order was intended to address the issue of drug addiction and its impact on public health.

Seattle Pot

A federal judge in Seattle has sentenced a man to five years in federal prison for convictions for pot possession. The man was accused of selling nearly half empty boxes of Raisinets, a popular candy brand.

A federal judge in Seattle has sentenced a man to five years in federal prison for convictions for pot possession. The man was accused of selling nearly half empty boxes of Raisinets, a popular candy brand.

A federal judge in Seattle has sentenced a man to five years in federal prison for convictions for pot possession. The man was accused of selling nearly half empty boxes of Raisinets, a popular candy brand.

The FTC is investigating whether utilities are overcharging customers for electricity and natural gas. The investigation is focusing on companies like Avangrid and Eversource Energy, which have been accused of inflating prices.

The FTC is investigating whether utilities are overcharging customers for electricity and natural gas. The investigation is focusing on companies like Avangrid and Eversource Energy, which have been accused of inflating prices.

The FTC is investigating whether utilities are overcharging customers for electricity and natural gas. The investigation is focusing on companies like Avangrid and Eversource Energy, which have been accused of inflating prices.

A painting previously thought to be an 18th-century copy of a work by artist Jan Steen is actually an original by the Dutch master, a museum announced Friday. The painting was purchased by a private art collector for $2.5 million.

A painting previously thought to be an 18th-century copy of a work by artist Jan Steen is actually an original by the Dutch master, a museum announced Friday.

A painting previously thought to be an 18th-century copy of a work by artist Jan Steen is actually an original by the Dutch master, a museum announced Friday.

By ADAM KLASFELD

With Protesters Over

An original by the Dutch master, a museum announced Friday. The painting was purchased by a private art collector for $2.5 million.

An original by the Dutch master, a museum announced Friday. The painting was purchased by a private art collector for $2.5 million.

An original by the Dutch master, a museum announced Friday. The painting was purchased by a private art collector for $2.5 million.

By NICK MCCANN

Gassing Suit, 10th Circuit Says

The Second Circuit on Friday effectively overturned a verdict that blamed Arab Bank for allowing its accounts to be used by terrorists. The court ruled that the bank was not liable for the actions of its customers.

The Second Circuit on Friday effectively overturned a verdict that blamed Arab Bank for allowing its accounts to be used by terrorists. The court ruled that the bank was not liable for the actions of its customers.

The Second Circuit on Friday effectively overturned a verdict that blamed Arab Bank for allowing its accounts to be used by terrorists. The court ruled that the bank was not liable for the actions of its customers.

By DAN MCCUE

Democratic Governor

Immigration Fight Looks

The Republican leaders of the state’s congressional districts are submitting a new statewide map of the state’s congressional districts to the state’s congressional districts commission. The map will mean the military can foot the bill for thousands more troops, more training, and new equipment.

The Republican leaders of the state’s congressional districts are submitting a new statewide map of the state’s congressional districts to the state’s congressional districts commission. The map will mean the military can foot the bill for thousands more troops, more training, and new equipment.

The Republican leaders of the state’s congressional districts are submitting a new statewide map of the state’s congressional districts to the state’s congressional districts commission. The map will mean the military can foot the bill for thousands more troops, more training, and new equipment.