European Union Warned to Do More on Desecration

In the latest round of threats aimed at dissuading the European Union from sanctioning Israel, a high-ranking EU official was warned on Wednesday of potential legal and political ramifications.

DNA Bounds to India

Five DNA samples were found to be genetically linked to the Indian subcontinent, suggesting a direct ancestral link between the region and the modern day Indian population.

Hidden Mattresses

Spanish police have discovered two migrants hidden inside mattresses, attempting to cross the Spanish border. The migrants were reportedly attempting to reach Europe from North Africa.

Painting Stolen by Nazis

The world-famous painting "The Night Watch" by Dutch master Rembrandt van Rijn has been recovered by the Dutch police, who tracked down the stolen artwork to a private collector in London.

National

University of Southern California

A former coach from the University of Southern California has pleaded guilty to a bribery conspiracy, admitting to paying $4,100 to secure a spot for a student athlete.

First College Hoops Coach Falls

A former coach from the University of Southern California has pleaded guilty to a bribery conspiracy, admitting to paying $4,100 to secure a spot for a student athlete.

A former partner at Cooley LLP, Laura Grossfield Birger, was tapped Wednesday to lead a new state law firm that will represent the state in civil matters, including a wide range of issues such as education, healthcare, and environmental protection.

Proponents of the new law firm argue that it will provide better representation for the state and its citizens.

shutdown has not slowed down drug kingpin Joaquin "El Chapo" Guzman has pleaded guilty to his role in one of the world's largest drug trafficking organizations.

Southern California pleaded guilty

A former coach from the University of Southern California has pleaded guilty to a bribery conspiracy, admitting to paying $4,100 to secure a spot for a student athlete.

prison workers

House Democrats plan to vote Thursday on a bill to increase the pay of prison workers, following a protracted labor dispute that has sparked a series of strikes in recent months.

employee class action

A Chicago music producer, who claims to be the co-owner of a record label, has filed a class action lawsuit against Universal Music Group, alleging that the company breached its contract with the producer.

HealthPlus Surgery Center

A class action lawsuit has been filed against HealthPlus Surgery Center, in Saddle Brook, New Jersey, alleging that the center performed unnecessary and ineffective surgeries.

sanctions

The United Nations has imposed sanctions on North Korea, targeting its nuclear program and its weapons of mass destruction capabilities.

Employee Class Action

A Chicago music producer, who claims to be the co-owner of a record label, has filed a class action lawsuit against Universal Music Group, alleging that the company breached its contract with the producer.

HealthPlus Surgery Center

A class action lawsuit has been filed against HealthPlus Surgery Center, in Saddle Brook, New Jersey, alleging that the center performed unnecessary and ineffective surgeries.

sanctions

The United Nations has imposed sanctions on North Korea, targeting its nuclear program and its weapons of mass destruction capabilities.