The Animal Legal & Historical Center has tracked 16 countries that have notified the International Press Institute has tracked 16 countries that have notified the International Press Institute have notified the International Press Institute that their mandated lockdowns have affected news media freedom...